Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) =000000

- The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.
- The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.

ESTIMATED ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

- Based on the eligibility criteria, you may be eligible for the following federal student aid:
- Federal Pell Grant Estimate – $6,495.00
- Direct Loan Estimate – $6,500.00
- You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.

IRS Information

Your parent(s) indicated he or she filed an IRS tax return when providing financial information, and it appears he or she was eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, which transfers IRS tax return information directly into your FAFSA form. The tool is the easiest way to provide accurate tax information, and eliminate the need for providing a copy of the tax return of your parent(s) to your college’s financial aid office. Once your FAFSA form has been processed, you can return to fafsa.gov and your parent(s) can use the tool to transfer his or her tax information.
